Statistics Show Growth in Schools of Orange County;
What Schooling Costs

The annual report of County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell shows that Orange county had a substantial growth in the last year. Statistics for 1911-12 showed 6772 pupils enrolled in the grades of the entire county and 1187 in the high schools. The report for 1912-13 shows 7268 in the grades and 1437 in the high schools. That Orange county is liberal when it comes to providing school facilities is indicated by the amount of money spent for new school buildings. In 1911-12 the sum of $92,869.28 was spent on new grammar school buildings and $285,234.62 on new high school buildings. In 1912-13 new grammar school buildings cost $108,414.43 and new high school buildings $173,289.86. These totals do not include but a small proportion of the new Santa Ana high school.

Those pupils of the grade schools of Orange county outside of Santa Ana are to be given credit for work done at home or elsewhere outside of school hours. In this case the word work means actual manual labor, such as dish-washing, hoeing the corn, chopping wood and mowing the lawn.

The proposed system is a new thing in this county. Prof. Charles C. Smith, formerly a teacher at Huntington Beach, now principal of the grammar schools at Orange, is father of the idea. It has been adopted by the board of education and will be included in the new school manual for the school year 1913-14.

Under the proposal adopted, regularity of work is encouraged. Thirty minutes each school day and two hours work on Saturday for a month, maintained while the pupil is in good health, will give the pupil a mark of 100 in that "study" for the month. Missing a day will knock five per cent off the record.

The system is fully explained by Prof. Smith in the following:

"Realizing that a large part of the education that really counts is acquired outside of the school-room, it is the desire of the county board to devise some plan by which the child's outside work may be recognized for school credit. Some teachers may not be able to use the suggestion at all, but it is hoped that out of the experience of those who try it this year information may be gathered which can be used in perfecting a better plan for next year's work."

"The plan is to count the home work as a full subject and to give it as much credit toward promotion or graduation as any one study that is taken in the school-room. To obtain full credit with a grade, or 100 per cent on the home work, the pupil above the second grade must work at home or for some recognized employer for thirty minutes on each school day and for two hours each Saturday. For a pupil in the first or second grade a grade of 100 per cent may be given for fifteen minutes work each day and for one hour of work each Saturday. Cards will be furnished by the county superintendent and the statement that the work has been done in a satisfactory manner must be signed by the parent or employer. An AVERAGE of thirty minutes each day will not be accepted because one of the important things to be gained is the habit of REGULAR work. For each day the work is forgotten five per cent must be deducted from the perfect grade of 100 per cent. In cases of sickness an excuse should be sent by the parent to the teacher, and if accepted by the teacher, nothing need be deducted from the month's grade, provided not more than one-fourth of the work time for the month has been so missed."

"Of course the co-operation of the teacher, parent and pupil is necessary to make the plan a success, and no one should feel a greater interest in its success than the parent. He should be exacting in dealing with the child, realizing that it is the training of the child that is sought more than the credit for the work. The parent who would thoughtlessly connive with the child to get the credit unfairly would find only chaff

Daniels Says Is Making Plans for Pacific Fleet

OXNARD, July 22.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, commenting on the report that he will soon announce a battleship fleet for the Pacific, said here today that when the canal is open a fleet will come to this side and henceforth spend a portion of the time on the Pacific and a portion on the Atlantic, as much as the Pacific as the Atlantic.

"I am studying conditions on the Pacific coast for a report to Congress," he said. "On my return to Washington I will consult with experts of the navy and then make recommendations, but I do not know as yet what they will be."

Mediation Board Expects to Bring Trainmen's Troubles to Speedy End

NEW YORK, July 22.—Members of the government mediation board today predicted an early settlement of the difficulties between the conductors and trainmen of the eastern railroads and their employers.

The mediators met the trainmen's representatives this afternoon. They stated before the meeting that they expected to arrive at some definite plans for adjustment before the meeting ended.

The mediators are seriously considering another attempt to induce the Erie railroad to enter the negotiations with the other roads affected. Failing in this the mediators will probably ask the Erie officials to make a separate submission of their grievances for mediation.

Laid Trap For Blackmailers, But They Failed to Come For the Cash

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—Two men missing, one injured, two houses destroyed with a damage of $3000, and eight other buildings damaged, was the result of an explosion and fire wrecking a grocery store and wine house in Damon street last night. The police have failed to unearth any clue as to the identity of the Black Handers who, Angelo Cornelius, proprietor of the grocery, claims wrote him threatening letters. A store formerly owned by Cornelius was also fired several months ago. Cornelius claims he received a letter directing him to place a sum of money beneath a bench in Verdugo Park. He said, and then hid beneath a bench with a revolver, but no one came. He later received other letters demanding money.

MANY GIRLS TRAPPED IN FACTORY FIRE

Overall Plant at Binghamton Burning—Loss of Life May Be Appalling

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 22.—Many of the 150 employees of the Binghamton overall factory are believed to have been trapped in a fire which is destroying the plant this afternoon. At 3:15 o'clock it was stated that only a small number of the employees had been accounted for, but it is impossible to estimate the loss of life.

The fire spread rapidly, communicating to other structures.

At 3:30 it was estimated that forty girls were dead.

STILL LOTS OF TIME FOR REFERENDUMS

SACRAMENTO, July 22.—Attorney General Webb in an opinion furnished Secretary of State Jordan interpreting the initiative and referendum clause of the state constitution, asserts that midnight August 9 is the day for filing referendum petitions in the secretary of state's office, despite a rumor that forty days additional time is provided in the constitution for the filing of supplemental petitions.

Webb points out the following sentence of the constitution in support of his contention: "Upon the presentation to the secretary of state, within ninety days after the final adjournment of the legislature of a petition certified as herein provided, the secretary of state shall submit to the electors for their approval or rejection such act." The attorney-general's office admits that the entire section of the constitution dealing with the referendum is rather vague and befogged, but contends that its intent is clear.

RIVERSIDE COUPLE ELOPED TO EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex., July 22.—Believing they were being pursued, A. C. Barry Canner, twenty-four years of age, and Laura Cornelia Bordwell, twenty-one, both of Riverside, Cal., rushed into the county courthouse yesterday afternoon and secured a marriage license. They asked County Clerk Pittman to telephone for Justice E. B. McClintock, and were married as soon as the justice could get there in an auto. Canner and Miss Bordwell came here from Los Angeles, but did not have time to get married in that city.

HOUSE RESOLUTION DEMAND FOR ACTION

Proposes Intervention In Mexico Within Thirty Days—Washington Considers Situation Very Grave

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Intervention in Mexico within thirty days unless order is restored was demanded today in a resolution introduced in the House by Representative Murray of Arkansas. Murray denounced Huerta and demanded that the federal administration take immediate steps to protect American citizens in Mexico.

The preamble reads: "Revolution liberated Mexico through the guiding genius of Francisco Madero, its rightful ruler. Through duplicity, treachery and murder Huerta, an usurping marauder, has nullified the constitution and destroyed the lawful authority of the government. He also committed on the person of the president and his family black-handed murder paralleled only by the pusillanimous cruelty of the dark ages. Huerta's rule has been a contending mass of brute force, banditti of incendiarism, rapine and murder."

Charges that President Huerta of Mexico is deliberately seeking a general understanding with Japan in order to get aid against America if intervention comes, are freely made here today by administration officials, although none would permit the use of his name. The belief in a secret Japanese-Mexican alliance transcends the interest here in the confidential government reports of peril to American residents in Mexico. Latest reports are to the effect that Americans in Mexico are in greater danger than at the time closely following Madero's assassination. Persistent reports are circulated that Wilson will not recognize Huerta, but will merely recognize both factions as belligerents, leaving them to fight the matter out.

There was no cabinet meeting today as a majority of the cabinet members are absent from the city. The President, however, devoted all day to examining and familiarizing himself with the memoranda on the Mexican situation. Visitors to the executive offices were turned away with the information that the President was too deeply engrossed to be disturbed.

Owing to changes in the time for Ambassador Wilson's arrival here the conference with the cabinet will not take place until Saturday. Many private

CONVICTS IN HOLOCAUST

Thirty-three Burned to Death on Prison Farm Near Jackson, Miss.

JACKSON, July 22.—Thirty-three negro convicts, sleeping on the second floor of a wooden cage at the convict farm twenty miles southwest of here, were cremated at midnight, the bodies being burned beyond recognition.

The fire started on the first floor, cutting off escape through the stairway. The cage was filled with hay for bedding, and other combustibles. The screams of the dying could be heard for miles.

SUN POWER PLANT PROVES SUCCESS FOR IRRIGATION

LONDON, July 22.—The sun power plant designed by Frank Shuman, the American engineer, to carry on the work of irrigation in the Nile valley is an unqualified success, according to the official report received here today from Cairo. The device has proved to be more efficient and more economical, even with the river at its lowest level, than pumps run by coal fuel engines, or the old hand method of lifting the water into the ditches. Lord Kitchener, the British Agent in Egypt, who recently inspected the plant, believes it will be of enormous help in the agricultural development of the Soudan and Upper Egypt.

DELLA FOX LEAVES ESTATE TO HER FATHER

NEW YORK, July 22.—In her will, filed today, Mrs. Della Fox Levy, known on the stage as Della Fox, left her entire estate, said to amount to between $10,000 and $15,000, to her father, Andrew J. Fox of St. Louis. Her husband, Jack Levy of the Hotel Empire, and all her brothers and sisters signed waivers and consented to the probate of the will.

SENATORS IN WARLIKE MOOD

Possibility of Intervention in Mexico Brings Belligerent Talk

FALL'S RESOLUTION AIMED AT PEACE

Senator Works Ready For Fight to Protect Rights of Americans

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The most warlike declarations the Senate has heard since the inception of the Mexican troubles resounded today when the possibility of American intervention was freely discussed.

Fall, of New Mexico, demanded the consideration of his resolution introduced Saturday, declaring the sole purpose of his resolution demanding protection for Americans abroad is to prevent war. He described conditions in Mexico, ending with "when any nation becomes so commercialized that it will not, by arms if necessary, protect the lives and property of its citizens abroad, the days of that nation are numbered."

Jones and Bacon urged caution. Bacon demanded to know "what constitutional right America has in Mexico," and wanted to know if Fall meant that whenever an American was despoiled of property or imprisoned five hundred miles from the border we should send an army to release him. Lodge shouted "No." Stone shouted "Yes."

Various senators demanded the right to speak, but Works, gaining the floor, declared: "Many Californians have lost property and lives in Mexico without warrant of law. 'Full protection' in this resolution means that where we cannot otherwise protect our citizens we will go to war to do so. Eventually we may reach the point where we must intervene, or go to war, but I suggest that we first carefully consider the situation."

WANTS LAWYER IN PROBE HEARING

Mulhall Says Investigations Have Taken on Decided Political Cast

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Identification of more letters occupied the attention of Colonel Mulhall when he returned to the witness stand in the Senate lobby investigation this morning. His testimony will probably consume two more days.

Mulhall today demanded the right to have counsel, saying the probe was assuming the "cast of a political battle." The request was granted, but Senator Reed objected to other attorneys participating in the hearing. Mulhall declared that in February, 1909, he wrote General Manager Burd of the National Association of Manufacturers that he was glad to say that it was becoming "fashionable" for congressmen to seek friendship with the organization instead of avoiding it. Later, he testified, Secretary Schwedtmann of the association instructed him to circulate reports to the effect that Senator Hopkins of Illinois was having difficulty in being re-elected. Mulhall declared the National Association fought Hopkins because of the latter's "activities with Gompers and his crowd."

DIED OF INJURIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—Mrs. Resie Jones, who was injured when an automobile in which she was riding turned over near the Los Angeles Country Club last Friday morning, died at St. Catherine's Hospital at 9 o'clock last night.

Her right leg was crushed when she was caught under the hurtling automobile, and she was injured internally. Mrs. Jones was 26 years old and came here from Indianapolis six months ago. She leaves a brother, Wilson Pottinger of Denver, and her mother, Mrs. C. E. Pottinger, who lives in Los Angeles.

BRYAN LECTURING

GARY, Ind., July 22.—Secretary of State Bryan lectured here last night at the Chautauqua before an audience of 2000. He continued his talk to one of his stock lectures, "The Making of a Man," and made no political or governmental references whatsoever.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

DOES NOT WANT LA HABRANS IN THE WEDDING SET ASIDE

Los Angeles Attorney is Fighting an Action Brought For Annulment

EDWARDS ESTATE VALUED AT $12,000

Will of Former City Marshal Gives All of the Property to the Widow

Attorney Ivan C. Baker may have one or more of a number of reasons for putting up a vigorous fight against his wife's efforts to annul her marriage to him. It may be that he would just as soon have the knot cut, but does not want the court records to stand out that he admitted the charges against him. It may be that he wants to give his spouse all the trouble he can. It may be that he wants to keep her as his wife with the hope of a reconciliation.

Whatever the reason, Baker has asked the superior court to refuse to annul the marriage. His answer was filed with the county clerk this morning.

Baker is a Los Angeles attorney. The plaintiff in the suit is Claire M. Baker of Anaheim, whose maiden name, which she wishes to take back, was Baker. Her complaint states that Baker in wooing her had grossly deceived her in that he represented that he led a sober and moral life.

The woman alleges that as a matter of fact he led a "fast and high life," and that his deceit concerning his manner of living constituted misrepresentation and fraud and ground for annulment.

Baker's answer denies the allegations of the complaint so far as misrepresentations are concerned.

Edwards' Estate
The will of L. M. Edwards, who was city marshal of Santa Ana for four years, has been filed for probate by Attorney Clyde Bishop, representing Edwards' widow, Mrs. Effie F. Edwards. Under the will the entire estate goes to the widow. The estate is valued at $12,000, and consists of forty acres of land planted to sugar beets, a lease on thirty acres set to beets, stock, implements, etc. The will was written on July 8.

Named Deputy
Sheriff Rudolph has appointed L. J. Simpson of Bay City, a P. E. conductor, as a deputy sheriff without pay.

Petition Is Filed
Today Mrs. Abilene G. Thompson of Anaheim petitioned for letters of administration on the estate of her husband, William J. Thompson, who died on June 30, leaving an estate worth $30,000. The entire estate goes to the widow. Weiss & Dutton are attorneys for the petitioner.

Case Dismissed
Today a dismissal was entered in the attachment suit brought by Dr. W. S. McFarlane, an Anaheim veterinarian surgeon, against W. G. Emmett of Delhi.

Marriage License
Arthur Dickey, 23, of Santa Ana, and Freda Lorenz, 23, of Hemet, are the bride and groom.

For Defendant
Yesterday Judge Wellborn gave judgment for the defendant in the suit brought by Carl Rodemeyer against G. Mezer. The plaintiff wanted an order to compel Mezer to allow water to be taken across his land. Mezer established the feasibility of taking the water around his place, entirely on Rodemeyer's land.

Commission Trial
Today Judge West is taking testimony in the trial of the case in which A. Rayner asks $500 real estate agent's commission for having furnished D. E. Hobbs of Harpersville with a buyer for Hobbs' place.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

LA HABRANS IN A HIGHWAY TANGLE

Delegation Declares Committee Had No Authority to Settle the Route

ALL BUT NINE SIGN FOR THE LOWER ROUTE

Only Way Out Seems to Be to Again Ask State Commission to Change Mind

It has been many a day since the Board of Supervisors brushed up against anything that is as badly tangled as the settlement of the highway routes in La Habra Valley. The board thought everything was settled, but today they found that everything was unsettled. A delegation came before the board and declared emphatically that a former committee that negotiated with the board represented almost nobody but themselves, and that until today the true sentiment of the people of La Habra was never made known to the supervisors. The delegation that arrived today would have saved a bunch of trouble and would undoubtedly have had its way had it made its visit to the county seat two or three weeks ago.

It seems that the original idea was to have the state improve a state highway the road that runs in front of the schoolhouse. Then up came a clamor to have the road half a mile north accepted as the state highway. This last named is known as the upper route. A fight was made for the lower road, and the Associated Chambers of Commerce endorsed it. Then came a change of program. Those same persons fighting for the lower road evolved a new plan, which was to let the state improve the upper road and have the county and La Habra valley join in improving the lower road from Brea to the county line. It was proposed to have the county put up $20,000 and the valley bond itself for $40,000 or $50,000.

This proposition was all explained by a committee of La Habrans. The delegation that arrived today declared that the committee was self-appointed. However, that was not known to the supervisors, who went ahead and agreed to the plan, thinking it was the will of the people of the valley. The state was asked to back up and take the upper route.

This morning McDermann, McPadden and a dozen other residents of La Habra descended upon the supervisors, and it was with a mighty crash that they landed. They declared that the valley is overwhelmingly against the project agreed to. The valley wants the lower road paved, and it does not want anything to do with the bonding proposal. It is, last, last and all the time opposed to the so-called committee's plan of building a lengthwise road by voting bonds.

It was declared that a careful canvass of the valley showed that nine men and nine only favor the project. Everybody else is dead set against it. With the exception of the nine men, the valley unanimously favors improving the lower road by the state, and let the matter rest at that.

It was asserted that the costs of right-of-way on the lower route was exaggerated. All deeds are secured, except three, and $4,000 or $5,000 will secure all that is required by the state.

The supervisors were in a quandary. They said they had taken the statements of the committee as authentic. The state has now selected the upper route, and possibly it is now too late to change back to the lower route. Hoping that the matter can be settled to suit the great majority, the matter was referred to the state and county highway commissions. If the state will again take the lower route, all will be well. One thing seems certain, and that is that La Habra will never vote bonds for the proposal outlined to the supervisors by the committee that was before it a short time ago.

No Purchases
This morning bids were received for a tractor for Supervisor Leck's district and a road roller for Supervisor Schumacher's district. On Leck's request all bids for the tractor were rejected. The bids for the roller were taken under advisement until August 5. A Los Angeles representative of one of the companies furnished a lot of amusement. He "demanded" that his bid be accepted because his figure was the lowest. He would not stand for any delay. He demanded immediate decision. Supervisor Leck thought he was referring to the tractor bids, most certainly the representative could not shove any tractor down his throat that he did not want. The man replied that he was talking about instead of wheat when the harvest time comes around. "The thirty minutes required work may be done at one time or it may be divided into two fifteen minute periods during the day. Conscientious work may be recognized and credit given for washing dishes, mending, darning, sweeping, making beds, tending babies, making garden, running errands, milking cows, carrying papers or any other honest work, and the nature of the work must be stated in a note accompanying the card statement of the work which is sent to the teacher by the parent each month. The plan is not to make the home work a required study but to allow any pupil who wishes to do so to take up the work and to ask credit thereon. The question of whether or not the pupil receives pay for the work will not enter into the question of school credit."

DON'T use a cough medicine containing opium or morphine. They constipate the bowels and do not cure, only stifle the cough. P. A. Kirdi, Concho, Calif., gives a pointer for others to profit by. "I have sold Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, also other lines of cough medicine for a number of years, but never used anything but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for myself or family, as I find it produces the best results, always cures severe colds, and does not contain opiates." NOT BADLY HURT IN VINEYARD CRASH
Friends of William Hurst, who is quite well known here, will be glad to know that he was not seriously injured in the recent wreck at Vineyard station on the Pacific Electric railway. Mr. Hurst was considerably bruised but was able to assist greatly in the work of removing the injured.

Do You Cultivate Your Orchard Deep Enough?

For the past few days we have been announcing a demonstration of the SAMSON ORCHARD TRACTOR at the San Joaquin Fruit Company's Ranch at Irvine.

Come and See What Kind of Work It Will Do

Several prominent orchardists who have seen it say it will do more than Samson Iron Works claim for it.

It will haul 10 tons on the road at 5 miles an hour, 6-7 tons in a field of ordinary soil, and 3 1/2-4 tons at 2 1/2 miles per hour in loose sandy soil.

It will cultivate 8 feet wide, 6 to 9 inches deep in any soil.

It will plow 8 to 10 acres, 8 inches deep, in any soil.

It will harrow 6 to 8 inches deep, 12 feet wide, in any soil.

It will do the work you are now doing with 6 to 8 mules at less cost and do better work and it will stand up to the work.

Samson Iron Works of Stockton, California, manufacture every part of the engine, and before offering it in the Southern California orchards had established it as a thoroughly practical and successful machine in Northern California.

Call up and make an appointment to see it working. It will be well worth your while.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, and will probably not be announced before tomorrow.

A birthday party was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Richards on East Chapman avenue. It was in honor of the eleventh anniversary of their son, Lyle Richards.

DEFENDS ABATEMENT LAW

The International Christian Endeavor convention in its resolution on the injunction and abatement act and the referendum which has been started against it, paid a high tribute to Governor Johnson and the Progressive legislature that put this law on the statute books of the state. The resolution follows:

"We congratulate California for her forward steps in temperance and industrial reform. It would be an insult to the Christian citizenship of this great commonwealth to question the outcome of the referendum on the red light abatement and injunction bill passed by the legislature and signed by the governor. But every right-thinking man and woman, carrying the high responsibility of citizenship, must be thoroughly aroused and unrelenting active if this eminently desirable law is to be saved from the hands of its saloon and brothel enemies.

"The defeat of this law would be regarded as a national invitation for Christian people and decent citizens generally to remain away from the exposition in 1915."

THE CORN CROP

The estimated yield of corn per acre, 27.8 bushels, as against 26 last year, means a lift along the way to the poor man. If the farmers could raise what the Department of Agriculture says they should, crops of 50 bushels per acre, little more would be heard of the cost of living problem.

The very soul of America seems to be reflected from those magnificent rolling fields of the corn belt. The great wheat field, yellow and golden, suggests the richness of prosperity. But the shiny pennants of the corn field, glistening in the sunshine and floating in the breeze, suggest all the sparkle of the American temperament, and alert energy of American enterprise.

Historians say that if the white man had delayed coming to this country another hundred years, the Indians and other tribes of Indians were making such progress in corn raising that they would have developed on their own account a more stable civilization. They had enormous fields even then. The great West would be barren to-day had not the corn field provided easy sustenance for men who were doing the coarse and heavy tasks of pioneering.

There can be no more important task before the government than spreading knowledge of corn gospel, and bringing up a race of farmers who can push the corn harvest to its limit of possibility. The simple home will never go hungry as long as the corn fields fill the meal barrel and feed the source of the pork supply. In millions of cottages, Johnny cake, hominy, and bacon are still the satisfying foundation for work in the field, the mine and the forest, a great triangle of bone, muscle, and sinew.

How many farmers know that a good ear of corn should be ten inches long, and that its circumference should be three-fourths its length, thickly studded with deep, fat grains?

Editorial Edibles

Senator LaFollette proposes to speak for a week on the tariff bill. Now wouldn't that make you tired?

Woodrow is getting down to brass tacks in his currency talks.

The President evinces such a marked tendency to appoint literary men to important foreign posts that we are not altogether without hope that he may send Mr. Robert W. Chambers to some distant and inaccessible spot.

Those people who are continually complaining of the high cost of living should consult the Washington man who has reared a family of eight children on a salary of fifty dollars a month.

No, Clarissa, bolts are not used to rivet caucuses together.

Taxes levied upon property not exempt from taxation shall be uniform.

A Tax Tragedy in Ourtown

Oh, Papa! See the pretty house! Yes, my Son, it is indeed pretty. The owner has just finished it. He will soon be sorry. Why do you think that, Papa? Because, my Son, here comes the Assessor; he will fine the man for improving the lot. He will fine him every year.

And, Papa, will he fine the man with the empty lot next door?

Not much, my Son.

Why not? Why, because the man with the empty lot has not committed an improvement. Why should he be fined?

Oh, Papa, you are joking.

Am I, my Son? Well just you put up a pretty house and see the Assessor come after you with a Big Stick—I mean a Big Bill.

Oh, Papa, what kind of people are the people of Ourtown?

There are two kinds of people in Ourtown, dear Boy, the Asses-sors and the Asses-sed.

Papa, that makes me feel bad!

Me too, my dear Boy; it drives me to drink. Have some root beer—on me. (O. B. Server.)

IN SANTA ANA

The Evidence is Supplied by Local Testimony

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Santa Ana, what can it be?

F. L. Sexton, retired farmer, 1129 W. Second street, Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Off and on I was troubled by a dull pain in the small of my back. I thought the complaint was due to disordered kidneys. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, I tried them. I soon got relief. Another of my family has also had fine results from Doan's Kidney Pills. They relieved her of backache just as quickly as they did me. I haven't had any need of Doan's Kidney Pills since I first used them. I am eighty-four years old and have never had any serious illness. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many old soldiers who I have heard complain of backache and kidney trouble. Many have used them on my recommendation. I take pleasure in confirming the public endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago."

SAN DIEGO PHOENIX RACE IS PROPOSED

SAN DIEGO, July 22.—A touring car endurance run from San Diego to Phoenix is being projected by the motoring populace of San Diego.

William H. Smith, president of the back country transportation company, and Wilson Snyder, another motorist, initiated the project, and are backed by more than a hundred ardent supporters.

The endurance run start would probably be made here at 5 o'clock in the morning. The cars would be due at Yuma at 4 p. m. and would stay there overnight, leaving the next morning at 6 o'clock, which would make them due at the Phoenix state fair grounds at 4 p. m., accomplishing the distance in two days. Four passengers would be allowed to each car. The promoters plan to raise a purse of at least $10,000.

PRICELESS RUBENS BOUGHT FOR TRIFLE

MELBOURNE, July 22.—A painting which is believed to be a Rubens worth at least $100,000 has been purchased at an auction for 36 cents. A Brunswick (West Australia) auctioneer bought it at this price and sold it a few weeks later to Dr. Charles Summers of Perth (West Australia) for $250. The doctor is convinced that it is a genuine Rubens. He left today for England with his prize to submit it to the president of the London Royal Academy and other experts.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

NEW COMPLAINT PUT END TO TRIAL

State Board of Pharmacy Attorney Made Wrong Legal Move in Justice Court

Today after the trial of Dr. E. L. Enoch on a charge of giving a prescription for a narcotic to a habitual user was commenced, the prosecutor, who is an attorney for the State Board of Pharmacy, endeavored to amend the complaint, and instead he caused the dismissal of the case.

Justice Cox presided. Attorney Bishop appeared for Dr. Enoch. The morning was taken up in quizzing talesmen. At 1:30 o'clock the prosecutor said he desired to amend the complaint, which alleged that Dr. Enoch on May 13 gave Frank Wells, a habitual user, a prescription for a drug in violation of the state law. He said the name should have been written Weller instead of Wells. Instead of having the name changed on the original complaint, the state board's attorney filed a new complaint in which the name Weller appeared. Dr. Enoch pleaded not guilty. The prosecutor then asked that the other charge be dismissed.

That was done, and then it was pointed out that the new complaint was worthless because the prosecutor had not followed the exact legal procedure of amending a complaint. To have secured an amendment the prosecutor need only have written in the name Weller on the old complaint.

—If seven doctors had told you, as they did C. E. Blanchard of La Grange, Calif., that you had but a short time to live on account of kidney trouble, what would you do? He says: "I had kidney trouble so bad, that I had to go to the hospital. Had seven different doctors, and they said I had but a short time to live. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they completely cured me and I can not speak too highly of them." Cost less than the doctors, but accomplished more. Contain no habit forming drugs. Returned From Camp Baldy

Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Reynolds returned Sunday from their automobile trip to Camp Baldy. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kingston accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Fred Kingston and wife of Los Angeles joined the party at the camp.

Dr. Reynolds reports a very fine trip with nothing to mar its pleasure. A large number of Santa Ana people were at the camp.

Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds spent two weeks on their vacation.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given last evening in honor of Miss Ethel Shatto, teacher in the high school, at the home of Will Warren, 814 Barton street. Miss Shatto leaves Wednesday for Germany, where she will remain a year. The young people enjoyed themselves with games of various kinds, and during the evening each one wrote a letter to Miss Shatto, which she was to read on board the steamer.

Miss Shatto was presented with a beautiful cameo pendant by the few of her pupils who were present. A flash-light picture of the group was taken by Martin Warren. Ice cream, cake and fruit were served by the hosts, Will Warren and Stewart Smith.

Those present were Misses Shatto, Beth Phillips, Alice Cranston, Edna McMurphy, Winifred Husser, Isabel Jayne, Marjorie McGee, Isabel Smiley, Ruth Hillyard; Messrs. Carson Smith, Fay Wright, Roy Phillips, Paul Anderson, Carson Smith, Stewart Smith, John Ball, Will Warren.

Miss Shatto received many wishes of a safe journey and a pleasant trip abroad.

The mother of the groom has received word that they are at Catalina where they will probably stay the remainder of the week. Doubtless their friends will warmly receive them upon their return to this city where they will reside.

Celebrated Birthdays

In honor of the birthdays of Misses Alice Preston and Maybelle King, the two families, including the family of Walter Vieira, united in a pleasant evening on the lawn between the two residences on West Third street.

ETHICS AND COOKS

A remarkable contribution to the August Woman's Home Companion is an article entitled "Ethics and Cooks," by Zona Gale, in which the author shows how scientific cooking is really in its infancy. Various foods have various values and various human beings have various requirements, yet food is seldom cooked except in hospitals, with a view to the special requirements of the body. Miss Gale thinks that a great revolution will take place along this line.

Personals

Miss Fay McDowell of North Spargeon street went to Los Angeles this morning to visit the rest of the week with Mrs. Donald Parker, formerly of Santa Ana.

HELP BOOST FOR MISS LOVELADY AND SANTA ANA

Santa Ana citizens who desire to boost this city and at the same time assist one of the city's most deserving young ladies can do so at a very little cost and trouble to themselves. As most everyone knows the Los Angeles Times is conducting its regular Educational Contest, the capital prize of which is $1000 to defray the expenses of a course at the State University.

The Times also offers to publish an illustrated descriptive article in the Sunday edition dealing with the city from which the winner of first place comes. Now Santa Ana has only one contestant in that big race and that is Miss Theona Lovelady of 312 Ross street. Miss Lovelady is well up to ward first place and she has the enthusiasm and the energy to win if the public-spirited people of Santa Ana will unite and assist her. The article would be a strong advertisement of our city.

The following letter is self-explanatory:

July 17, 1913. To Whom It May Concern: The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce takes great pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of Miss Theona Lovelady in the Los Angeles Times Scholarship Contest. By your assistance she may be enabled to win first place thus entitling this vicinity to the publication of an illustrated, descriptive article in the Sunday Times. This article will be an excellent advertisement of our community.

BRAWLEY SHIPS HONEY

BY THE CARLOAD BRAWLEY, July 22.—In less than four years the honey industry has grown from a few stands to thousands and the industry has become so great that honey is now being shipped from Brawley in carload lots. There are now a number of bee-keepers whose yearly produce runs high in tons and a number who each produce their crops by the carload.

J. Edgar Ross, one of the prominent honey producers, reports that he has sold a carload of honey at 6 1/2 cents a pound net. This is the highest price paid for honey sold in carload lots. Ross will ship the honey this month to a middle west distributor of fancy table honey.

This class of honey buyers have been rather careful about procuring honey from Imperial Valley owing to the dark color, but the fine flavor of the cantaloupe honey produced in the Brawley vicinity has overcome their prejudice and his brand is rapidly gaining recognition.

BAND CONCERT IS WEDNESDAY OF NEXT WEEK

Arrangements Have Been Made For Start of Summer Music at Birch Park

Wednesday evening of next week the first band concert of the season will be given at Birch Park by the Santa Ana Band.

Last night there was a meeting of the City Trustees and the directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce. The Trustees agreed to make an appropriation of $600 to the Chamber of Commerce to be used for band concerts and for advertising the city. A portion of the amount will be set aside for the fund to supply the concerts.

Definite arrangements have not been made as yet with Harry Hanson, manager of the band, for all of the concerts of the summer. The first concert will be Wednesday evening of next week. Succeeding concerts may also be given Wednesday evening, or possibly Sunday afternoons. That is a matter still to be decided.

At the meeting of Trustees and Chamber of Commerce directors last night the proposal to submit to the voters a proposal for a tax levy with which to aid in advertising and public concerts was discussed. The Trustees agreed to submit the matter at the election soon to be held when water works and fire department bonds are to be voted upon. If the proposal carries the Trustees may make a levy up to fifteen per cent per $100 for parks, music and advertising.

OBITUARY

L. M. Edwards was born in Indiana, August 5, 1861. While yet a very small child his people moved to Neota county, Kansas.

Mr. Edwards married Miss Effie Burnwell in Kansas, October, 1887.

In March, 1891, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards went to Denver, Colorado, where they lived only two years. They then came directly to Santa Ana, where they have made their home. Mr. Edwards was a member of the Macanbees, Odd Fellows and Knights and Ladies of Security.

In April, 1907, Mr. Edwards was elected city marshal and he made a most efficient and conscientious officer.

In November, 1901, he took membership with the First Christian church, in which church he ever thereafter was an active worker. During the twelve years of his Christian life Mr. Edwards missed four Sundays in attending church, one of these being in Oregon, where he was forced to walk fourteen miles to services. He was teacher of a young men's Sunday school class for eight years. His boys loved him and will miss him greatly.

Mr. Edwards completed a five years' correspondence course with the Kimberland Heights School of Bible Study, receiving his diploma and making himself a thorough Bible student.

In regard to Mr. Edwards, Rev. Paul E. Wright, pastor of the First Christian Church, said:

"To me, Brother Edwards' life was a beautiful life in many respects. It was beautiful because he had an aim. There was but one purpose that he kept every day before him. To him it was his daily business to serve the Lord Jesus. As a Christian I think there was not a day when it could be said that he had not definite thoughts as to just what as a Christian he should do and how he should live. 'One thing I do,' seems to have become his motto from the moment of his conversion. No one can longer tell me that there is nothing in conversion. The life of L. M. Edwards proves to those who knew him the contrary of all the fibes hurled at Christian ideals.

"It was a beautiful life because it represented a terrible struggle. You know the life from which he rose. It is seldom given to men to see such a victory. From a dissipated, profane man of the saloons he came to be a pillar in the church. The fight was on him so fierce that he frequently trembled from head to foot. There was no trembling in the last years. He was absolutely sure of himself. Truly he had fought a good fight. He fought on the right side and that it makes a fight good after all.

"It was a beautiful life because of its victory. He said to me the evening he died, 'I am going home, sure, this time.' I thought of those other words, 'In my father's house are many mansions.' From every angle of human judgment, it seems to me he is entitled to one. I am not ashamed of the esteem in which I hold my departed brother. Mistakes in judgment he may have made; uncultured as the world counts culture, he may have been, doubtless was, but there was in him no ring of base metal. He was sold through and through."

The following poem was written by Mrs. Will J. Lindsay of 801 East Third street:

To the Memory of Mr. L. M. Edwards Beautiful toiler, thy work all done, Beautiful soul into glory gone, Beautiful life with crown now won, God giveth rest.

Rest from all sorrows and waiting fears, Rest from all possible sighing and tears, Rest thro' God's endless, wonderful years; At Home with the blest.

'TROUSERS' STRIKE OF RUSSIAN MONKS STARTLES POPULACE

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—A "No trousers, no prayers" strike by the monks of the St. Michel Monastery, near Malpork, has startled the population of the Caucasus province, and for some days no services have been held at the monastery, no bells have pealed and the cloisters are dark and forsaken. While the monks are out for more food and more leisure, their principal demand is for trousers. The trouble has arisen over the "fixed idea" of Father Ambrosio, head of the monastery, who isn't content with the customary standard, that monks must be devout, chaste and temperate. He seems to think that devotions are the best substitute for food, and that trousers are luxuries. In pursuance of this idea, Father Ambrosio has lengthened the hours of prayer and shortened the hours of sleep, calling upon his monks to perform hard work in the fields. The monks, who have a human leaning toward a plentiful supply of food and leisure for a game of cards, stood the extra devotions, less food and additional work, but when the trousers were banned they struck. The strike was called just as a big pilgrimage was arriving, and the much demanded services at St. Michel's Chapel were discontinued. The monastic authorities while willing to make concessions in the matter of food and leisure, supported Father Ambrosio on the question of trousers, and the strike is complete. Meanwhile, the monks are getting plenty of food from the devout neighborhood and are holding protest meetings and stirring up popular feeling in their demand for trousers.

Fulton Go-Carts are built extra large and roomy and are comfortable for baby. Flexible springs absorb all shock. Prices, $6.50 to $18.50. Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Company.

AUSTRALIA GIVES JAPS HARD DEAL

Representative Knowland Finds They Have Fewer Rights There Than in America

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Although Japan has made a grave international controversy out of the California alien land legislation, Representative Joseph B. Knowland of California today said that certain states and territories of the Australian commonwealth far more directly discriminate against Japanese.

This prompts Californians to inquire why Japan is sharply objecting to alien land legislation in the United States and accepting it from a portion of the British empire, her ally. Mr. Knowland today gave the benefit of his research in the statistics of the various Australian states. He cannot obtain free hold land unless he can write from dictation words from such language as the minister of lands may select. This test is said to be never applied to Europeans; moreover, it may be applied any time within three years after the application of the alien for the right to own lands. The law also provides that an alien in order to own land must become a naturalized subject of the commonwealth within three years. The naturalization laws forbid the naturalization of natives of Asia Japan and China therefore are debarred from ownership of land in Queensland on the score of ineligibility to citizenship, which is precisely where the line is drawn in California.

Mr. Knowland also explained that in South Australia Asiatics are disqualified from holding land in the irrigation areas. In the northern territory the crown land law of 1899 forbids any Asiatics to acquire the fee simple of any land, while another act of 1903 forbids the granting of mining leases to an Asiatic.

WILSON POLICY IS FAR-REACHING

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Washington is gradually coming to a realization of the far-reaching character of the policy enunciated by the Wilson administration in its proposal to establish what amounts to an American protectorate over Nicaragua.

Officials here were inclined to treat the prospective treaty with Nicaragua as a mere incident in the general policy which it foreshadows of a direct control by the United States over all of Central America.

It is the most important move in our foreign relations since the promulgation of the Monroe doctrine itself, was the opinion expressed by one very high authority on our international relations.

This means the hoisting of the American flag all the way to the Panama canal, so certainly as time goes on, was the way Senator Borah, a member of the foreign relations committee, viewed the proposal.

Other members of the senate took almost an equally advanced view of the step that the Wilson administration has taken. Notwithstanding the extreme view held by many in regard to the proposal, evidenced accumulated yesterday that it will meet a cordial reception in the senate and stands a good show of ratification. Republicans for the most part applauded the proposed treaty.

From an authoritative source also it was learned that President Wilson regards his Nicaraguan policy as involving the likelihood of extension beyond that republic. It can be said, however, that the Wilson administration has not thought of attempting to impose such a relationship on any of the Central American countries.

WALTER EDEN IS SELECTED

Next month when the time arrives for the appointment of another deputy district attorney, the position will go to Walter Eden, now associated with the Orange County Title Co. District Attorney West has completed arrangements with Attorney Eden for the appointment to take place as soon as the county government act goes into effect.

Eden is well known among his associates as an unusually able man. While a great deal of his life has been spent in the abstract and title business both here and in the East, he has made good as an attorney at his former home. Recently he has been engaged in the intricate work of straightening out the legal tangles involved in the titles to roads to be improved by the county. Eden is a forceful speaker, and in cutting loose from the title business to enter the profession of law exclusively his friends look for excellent success.

With the addition of Eden, the district attorney's office will have two deputies. A. E. Koepsel, who in himself is a tower of strength to the office, will continue as deputy district attorney.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Auditorium

That the Auditorium has struck the proper line of attractions is evident by the ever increasing attendance at this now favorite show-house. Last night the attendance was larger than it has been any previous Monday night, and each night shows that the people are well satisfied with the efforts of the management to please them. The moving pictures were fine, both as to subject and the clearness with which they are thrown upon the screen, and pleased everyone present, but the balance of the evening's entertainment was a very pleasant surprise, from the first act to the finish.

The first was Alfredo, the musical tramp, of which kind of "stunt" much is not often expected. But Alfredo fooled the people a little, for he was very funny, and once he got them started the laughter continued throughout. He first sang a catchy, humorous song and then gave a series of selections on the concertina, "pipe," etc., interspersed with laugh-provoking talk.

The Millar Brothers and their "Diorama" was a great hit. It is really a beautiful and spectacular show; a number of exquisite pictures in color with mechanical and electrical effects that bring out startling results. The audience showed intense interest and appreciation of this novelty.

The Gypsy Quartette, billed as "The Gitana Festival Singers," were also an agreeable surprise. They are four singers in Gypsy costume, with a picturesque stage setting, and they sing a number of popular and operatic songs that are decided favorites with the majority of theater goers, including the "Toreador Song" from "Carmen"; the "Sextette" from "Lacra"; "Oh, Night of Love" from "The Tales of Hoffman"; and a bit from "The Chocolate Soldier." Their voices harmonize beautifully and their "act" is a real treat. The entire evening's performance was splendid. There are to be two more evenings of this bill, tonight and Wednesday.

At the Mirror

La Rose and Murray, the original Mulligan and Schultz, are again giving the theatre going public of Santa Ana a treat in their offering "A Man From Alaska." Mulligan Murray is among the best comedians ever seen in Santa Ana and this fact is proven by the way he keeps the audience in an uproar by his witty sayings.

"MOONLIGHT SONATA" CHARMS GILA MONSTER

REDONDO BEACH, July 22.—That music hath charms to soothe the breast of an excited reptile, as well as the savage was exemplified in a most convincing manner yesterday when a large Gila monster broke from its moorings in a shipping box and defiantly claimed the right of way in Brady's drug store, on Pacific avenue.

For a time the question of the hour was to turn a trick whereby the dangerous guest might be safely landed in his quarters. All sorts of contrivances were resorted to without accomplishing the desired results, when Alex Brady hit upon a clever and unique plan.

Cautiously stealing to a corner of the room occupied by a phonograph he started the machine, softly playing Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata."

In an instant the reptile stole from under the counter and listened as though completely charmed by the beautiful strains. Opportunity just then was golden, and a daring witness to the sensational test silently stole up to the absorbed animal and slipped a cord around its neck, cleverly holding it.

It was hustled into a closed glass case, where a big dose of chloroform had been placed previously for the reptile's destruction.

FIRE-BUG AT WORK

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 22.—That a fire-bug is at work on John D. Rockefeller's estate is the belief of neighbors. From Saturday until today two attempts were made to burn the home of his sculptor, Emil Seiburn. It is now believed that the Rockefeller stables were set on fire by an incendiary three weeks ago.

WAS A "GOOD FELLOW." NOW SHORT $10,000

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Uncontrollable habits of spending, and the desire to be known as a "good fellow," are given as the reasons for the downfall of Silvester S. Battin, Jr., local representative for the Kremenitz Jewelry Company of Newark, N. J., who today was arrested on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $175,469 from his employers. His accounts are said to show a shortage of more than $20,000 and the total may amount to $49,000.
